KANGAROO COURT HELD

Sunday evening, Fort Camp saw a bevy of half-naked beauties in the dining hall. Some were on a table top; some guzzled beer; some stole men's belts; others made men laugh with "Poor Pussy."

The whole scene was a result of a Monks' Lunch, during which the girls were supposed to stay silent. Those who spoke were charged with rather interesting crimes: (and convicted of)

Betty Wong - doodling while taking her tray back and flirting with the growly men

Gay Watson - drinking illegally and under age

Anna Parkinson - extreme actions above and beyond the call of duty

Gillian Bates - tripping on her habit (cloak)

As punishment, these four had to do some cuming licking of ice cream buckets.

Tuby Wilcox - sneaking in at 6:30 in the morning

Sandy Edwards - ignoring Bruce with a condescending look

Jill Lancaster - eating her lunch too quickly and eating too much

Caroline Gundrum - swearing silently

These four did some Ale and hearty taking of the Pil in the Old Style. (Get it?)

Cathy Davidson - wrestling with the boys

Judi Wilson - letting the boys take advantage of her in the dining hall

Linda Davis - rolling on the floor with Laughter

Judy Bonner - disturbing the boys

As a punishment, these girls had a ball playing golf with oranges. No "birdies" were scored.

Diane Judd - taking advantage of the Monks' Lunch to gorge herself

Donna Bryant - condemning Shirley's growls.

Connie Warren - allowing her stomach to growl and disturb the boys

Caroline Ritchie - blowing smoke signals

These were punished by making men laugh by saying "Poor Pussy."

Wendy Wilden - taking hook shots with her chair

Jessie Mahatsu - dribbling her marble cake in the dining hall

Effie-Jane Bailey - chuckling it up too loud with her silverware

Heather Powers - winking seductively

These girls were given a bum deal - sitting on balloons, which eventually went off with a bang.

Liz Walker - putting out enticing ads to attract prowlers

Dale Pruden - booking dates during lunch (on Sunday!!!!!!)

Hazel Chambers - hustling a date for the Engineer's Ball

There was much panting going on as these three collected four belts from various men. That well-known dasher Toj was one of their victims.

As the excitement mounted, a mass movement arose: boys and girls together poured out of the Dining Hall and into the Dogpatch showers, where tension was released and spirits were dampened while the crowd ejaculated, "Tank 'em."

Basketball News:

After winning their first two games, the Fort Camp men were nipped by Acadia by a score of 41-38. The support of fans would be appreciated - all games are in the War Memorial Gym. Schedule is posted in the dining hall.

In inter-hut competition, hut 17 downed Hut 13. Dogpatch, after being outplayed by Hut 6, went down to the hands of Hut 7 for two defeats in a row. In an interesting game, the overly confident Hut 4 squad was upset by a well-balanced Hut 5 Team. Remember, games are at 8 and 9 every Sunday night. Come out and cheer your favorite hut.

Women's Council News: by Sue (Girl Thursday) Mitchell

After a successful (?) Monks' Lunch Sunday, the girls keep coming up with more entertainment! Next event will be the Bridge Tournament on February 7th at 7:30 P.M. in the Isy Mac Lounge. All bridge players (good, bad, or mediocre) are urged to sign up in the dining hall either singly or in pairs. Cost is only 35¢ and prizes will be given. (The tournament is conducted by the Selnor Bridge Club.)

On February 14th the girls' council will sponsor a dance in the dining hall featuring the King Contest with skits in support of each candidate. Boys who wish to run should get 10 signatures of Fort Camp girls to support them and conduct their campaign.

Open House will be held in the girls' dorms on the 4th and 18th of February from 1 to 5 P.M. Bollert Annex has open house every Sat. and Sun. afternoon until the 22nd.

Girls are playing basketball Sunday evenings in the Womens' Gym - spectators (out for a laugh) are welcome!

The Fort Camp Women's Standards Committee is now in operation. All disciplinary problems are handled by the committee.

Rumour has it that Mr. Rohringer is going to abolish late leaves - girls will soon be responsible for coming in at the hour they choose...

News Item:

The Fort Camp News recently received twenty dollars from the Men's Council to keep the mighty presses rolling. The Editors expressed extreme gratitude for this generous act.

More News:

The Fort Camp News Office Party will be held sooner than expected due to a sudden windfall.

Gossip Column - by Mary Maidenform

-Charlie F. seems to be enjoying the social life of F.C. - who wouldn't be when two birds (____ & _____) on a string are better than one in a cage!!

-The F.C. ski trip last week may have been a flop for some, but judging from those down at the beach Saturday afternoon, it was a damn good excuse for a drunk - just ask Jan!!

-Have you noticed that John M. has suddenly started studying in the Dining Hall every night of the week - apparently he likes C.F.'s style and thus is doing likewise.

-F.C. people - especially the girls - obviously are quite keen students - so keen that they can't get off their derrieres for one night in a month to come to a F.C. dance. Let's have a better turnout next dance, ladies....it could mean more fun for everyone - even you.
